

CONCERTGEBOUW BRUGGE RENEWED EARLY MUSIC FESTIVAL

BACH ACADEMIE BRUGGE

21-23/01/2011, Concertgebouw Brugge

In January 2011 the Concertgebouw Brugge, Philippe Herreweghe and his Collegium Vocale Gent are planning to re-launch the already successful Bach Academie. The Bach Academie Brugge will be an annual festival drawing baroque enthusiasts from all over the world. Throughout the weekend all eyes will be on the work of this outstanding composer. Concerts by leading international ensembles and soloists, lectures cum performances, films, exhibitions and site-specific projects will provide the public with a Bach 'total immersion' experience. But this timeless music often proves surprisingly wide in scope. During the first edition of this new-formula festival (21-23.01.2011), Collegium Vocale Gent will provide vocal tours de force with Bach's motets - magnificent occasional works each with their own individual character. The inspiring new architecture and acoustics of the Concertgebouw combined with Bruges' historical charm create the perfect setting for a genuine and contemporary three-day Bach event.
