

March 8-11

Join us for the Italian influence on Bach and Bach's influence on the Italians!

Paul Tegels: Feeding the Soul — Rhetorical Gestures in Bach's Music

Mon., March 8 at 4 p.m.

Rowland-Taylor Recital Hall

Guest scholar and organist Paul Tegels discusses how the music of Bach affects the feelings, moods and emotions of the listener.

Admission: Free and Open to the Public

Camerata Capistrano

Mon., March 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Harlen Adams Theatre Stage

Listen to a spectacular Baroque string chamber ensemble present music of Bach and his Italian contemporaries, including the Brandenburg Concerto #5.

ADVANCE TICKETS: $15 Adult, $13 Senior, $6 Student/Child

Grazioso

Tues., March 9 at 4 p.m.

Harlen Adams Theatre Stage

The artistry of CSU, Chico Music Department students takes center stage for this concert of Baroque music from Italy and Germany. Keyboardists Jeff Cooper and Christine Snyder, soprano Heather Rice, tenor Michael Beale and others are featured in this delightful afternoon recital.

Admission: Free and Open to the Public

Venice & Beyond

Tues., March 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Harlen Adams Theatre Stage

Guest organist Paul Tegels explores the influence of Italian composers on Bach with the Centennial Organ. He also presents the music of Vivaldi and other Italians as arranged by J.S. Bach. Pre-concert lecture begins at 7 p.m.

ADVANCE TICKETS: $15 Adult, $13 Senior, $6 Student/Child

Hungarian Gypsy Music

Kálmán Balogh & The Gypsy Cimbalom Band

Tues., March 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Laxson Auditorium

"A contemporary and uniquely forward-looking edge to time-honored traditions." — World Music Central

Descending from a famous dynasty of Hungarian Gypsy musicians, Kálmán Balogh is recognized as the world's foremost cimbalom (hammered dulcimer) player. Mesmerizing audiences with his mind-boggling virtuosity, speed and percussive abilities, he reinterprets centuries old melodies that bring a contemporary edge to time-honored traditions.

ADVANCE TICKETS: $18 Adult, $16 Senior, $14 Student/Child

Internationally Renowned

Vienna Boys Choir

Wed., March 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Laxson Auditorium

"The Angelic voices of this most famous vocal group are ageless." — The Salt Lake Tribune

A symbol of Austria for more than 500 years (both Haydn and Schubert sang with the choir), the Vienna Boys Choir continues to delight audiences around the globe. These angelic voices unite with power and authority as they explore the breadth of musical literature from the 16th century to the sounds of today. Founded in 1495, the choir's pure harmony and virtuosity have won the hearts of audiences and critics alike for five centuries.

ADVANCE TICKETS: $35 Premium, $30 Adult, $28 Senior, $20 Student/Child

Juggling, Clowns & Crazy Pet Antics!

Comedy Pet Theater

Thurs., March 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Laxson Auditorium

"The funniest circus act I ever witnessed." — Jay Leno

Comedy Pet Theater is a fun-filled extravaganza of unique comedy and championship juggling, combined with the extraordinary talents of cats, dogs, doves and even white mice. All these animals have been rescued from animal shelters and perform amazing leaps through the air, balancing and dancing in unimaginable ways. Featured in People Magazine, The Late Show with David Letterman and Animal Planet, Comedy Pet Theater has been called "one of the most unique attractions in the show world today" by Show Time Magazine.

ADVANCE TICKETS: $25 Premium, $20 Adult, $18 Senior, $15 Student/Child

