10TH ANNIVERSARY

Season 2011/2012

A Word from the Artistic Director

Welcome to our 10th Anniversary Season!

It has been my honor and privilege to direct the Bach Collegium - this talented, hard-working, and happy group of musicians, who over the last nine years has presented to Fort Wayne audiences major works by J. S. Bach and other composers, performing them in the style and with the instruments of the period. In celebration of this 10th Anniversary Year, we will be performing excerpts from these works – 9 years of all our favorites condensed into this one 10th season – for example, the best-loved sections of Bach's Mass in B minor, Christmas Oratorio and Easter Oratorio, Saint John Passion, a motet and several cantatas, and in addition to these, excerpts of works by Handel, Schütz, Brahms and Mendelssohn.

As you listen to these, you will hear the extraordinary blend of beautiful singing with period instruments. On the center page our concerts are listed, and you are cordially invited to attend them. Come help us celebrate, and be assured you will be uplifted and moved, not only by the extraordinary music and the articulate and buoyant Baroque style, but also by the inspiring texts, and you will always hear the joy!

We welcome you to come Bach for more!
