ANNUAL FUNDRAISER SET FOR JUNE 11, 2006

This year's theme for the fundraiser is "Remembering Sunday Afternoons At Three".

When Bach Fest began twenty-five years ago, recitals were held at the home of Cora Hartley.

These annual recitals grew into the Lake Chelan Bach Fest that we all know and love.

Afternoons at Three will be remembered and celebrated at the home of Dave and Sandy Gellatly. This beautiful setting is adjacent to Lake Chelan in Manson. The event is from three o'clock to six o'clock on Sunday June 11, 2006.

Participants will have the opportunity to drink wines donated by many of our local wineries and eat hearty hors d'oeuvres provided by Alex at Hungry Belly in Chelan.

Lisa Bergman, noted pianist, and Windfire Consort, an ensemble of four musicians led by Beth Jensen, will provide entertainment.

A highlight of the fundraiser will be a silent auction with at least twenty-five beautiful items and unique services.

Some of the popular attractions are; 4 Mariner Tickets in the Owners Box, a sailboat ride and gourmet lunch on Lake Chelan, a guided hike to Domke Lake on a trail that is only accessible by boat, Wenatchee Valley Symphony Season Tickets and a Glacier Peak Airplane flight for two. You will not want to miss what promises to be a most exciting time of silent auction bidding.

Please call 687-5523 to be included on our invitation list or pick up an invitation at the Lake Chelan Chamber of Commerce. The price of the fundraiser is $50 per person.

Join the many Bach Fest friends and supporters as we celebrate Lake Chelan Bach Fest's 25th Anniversary with a memorable Sunday Afternoon at Three.

MORE SPONSORS MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE

Each year we attract more Sponsors for our Bach Fest performances. This year we have Red Apple Markets, Chelan & Manson, Sponsoring a Concert.

Concert Co-Sponsors for the 2006 Festival are Chelan

Home Center, Lake Chelan Properties, North Cascades National Bank, Windermere Real Estate, Lake Chelan Building Supply, Cashmere Valley Bank and Bear Mountain Ranch.

Please be sure to visit these businesses and let them know how much you appreciate their support of Bach Fest.

Without our Sponsors, we would not be able to present the quality of musical performances you have come to expect of Lake Chelan Bach Fest year after year!

Volunteers

Always Needed

Got an urge to be involved with Bach Fest? We have an opportunity for you! We always need volunteers for the many tasks associated with producing our Festival each year. There are many ways to contribute. Let us know of your interest.

25TH YEAR TO BE A MEMORABLE ONE

Our 25th Year promises to be both exciting and rewarding. We start with a Riverwalk Pavilion Concert on Saturday, July 8th, followed on July 9th by the afternoon Young Musician's Concert and Evening Concert at North Shore Bible Church.

Monday through Friday features Music in the Garden of St Andrew's Episcopal Church at 10:30am, and Noon Chamber Concerts at Chelan United Methodist Church. The Evening Service is Thursday evening at the Methodist Church.

Friday evening we return, after several years, to St Francis Catholic Church to Celebrate Bach's B Minor Mass. We conclude the Festival with a Concert in the Riverwalk Pavilion on Saturday evening.

Included in the 2006 Festival will be many favorite pieces from previous years. Among the things you'll hear will be Handel's Water Music, Mozart's Divertimento in D Major, Kathryn Castrodale performing Gershwin's Rhapsody In Blue, and Michael Partington performing a Guitar Concerto.

Don't miss any of the performances during Bach Fest in Lake Chelan July 8th thru 15th.

OUR LOYAL AUDIENCES

We enjoy presenting Bach Fest each year, and one of the things that makes it so rewarding, is the continued presence of our faithful audiences.

Year after year you come to support our musicians and our efforts, and we really do appreciate you. Without an appreciative audience, there is no meaning to our performance and our Festival.

Looking out upon the Audience, as we begin each of our programs, the familiar faces of those of you who come year after year to enjoy the music, make all the hours of work to produce Bach Fest very worthwhile.
