BACH

and some admirers

Since Mendelssohn's revival of Bach's St. Matthew Passion in 1829, composers have been inspired by the monumental music of the late Baroque master. This year's festival displays works that reflect their admiration for Bach. The circle of admirers includes all who participate in Bach festivals around the world and musicians from many cultures who have made his music their own.

Join us as we celebrate our 15th season with the brilliant artistry of pianist Janina Fialkowska in both Chopin piano concertos, the glorious sounds of the Brahms Requiem, performed by the festival soloists, choir and orchestra, and much more, under the direction of Kenneth Nafziger with...
