

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

Introduction & updates at melvinunger.com.

Form: Chorus/fantasia - Recit (A) - Aria (B) - Recit (alto/tenor) - Aria (T) - Chorale.
 BWV 130 is the first of 4 cantatas Bach wrote for St. Michael's Day (September 29).
 The Epistle of the day recounts the story of the archangel Michael battling with the dragon, a vivid picture that evidently appealed to Bach. The work was part of Bach's so-called chorale cantata cycle. The text that forms the basis of the libretto was the 12-stanza chorale of 1561 (see note) "Herr Gott, dich loben alle wir" by Paul Eber (1511–1569), itself based on an 11-stanza Latin hymn. For a comparison of the 3 texts, see Petzoldt, "Bach Kommentar" 1:282–286. The tune, "Orsus, serviterus du Seigneur (1551) by Loys Bourgeois (d. 1559) is known to English audiences as "Old Hundredth." The splendid opening chorus presents the chorale in the soprano, accompanied by counterpoint in the lower voices. The vocal blocks, separated by ritornellos, are embedded in a concerto-like texture in which the instruments play militantly triumphant gestures.

J.S. Bach Cantata No. 130

Herr Gott, dich loben alle wir

(Chorale Verse 1) • Angels: Praise to God for angels around God's throne (130/1).

NBA I/30; BC A179a/b

St. Michael's Day: Sept. 29 (BWV 130, 19, 149, 50)

*Revelation 12:7–12 (The archangel Michael battles with the dragon). The passage served as the basis for the afternoon sermon.

*Matthew 18:1–11 (The kingdom of heaven belongs to children; their angels behold the face of God). The passage served as the basis for the morning sermon. See Petzoldt 1:285.

Librettist: Unknown

FP: 29 September 1724 (St. Thomas in the morning and

St. Nicholas at afternoon Verspers)

Note: St. Michael's Day coincided with the beginning of one of the 3 annual trade fairs in Leipzig.

(Coro.)
130/1. Vivace. (♩ = 76.)

Festive Instrumentation:

Tromba I, II, III

Timpani

Flauto traverso

Ob I, II, III

Vln I, II

Vla

SATB

Continuo, Organo

Form (Rhyme: AABB)

Rit. (mm. 1-21) CM

Line 1 (21-25) CM

Rit. (25-28) CM

Line 2 (28-32) CM

Rit. (32-38) CM-Am

Line 3 (38-42) Am-CM

Rit. (42-49) CM-GM

Line 4 (49-56) CM

Rit. (56, 5-21) CM

Note: in his analysis, Petzoldt sees more overlap of ritornello and text portions at mm. 38-42 & 53-56. See Bach Kommentar 1:286.

The ritornello is thematically independent, with trumpets dominating.

Protoevangelium (see note)

C major
For the significance of C, see side note.

Trps play ascending triads, oboes play descending ones. Martin Petzoldt suggests this may symbolize the fight between angels and demons. See Bach Kommentar 3:286.

4 relatively independent "choirs" in a concertante texture: trumpets & timpani, oboes, strings, voices.

Regarding the image of angels as warriors, see side note.

C major

D7

G major

A snaking continuo line presumably symbolizes Satan, the dragon referenced in the day's Epistle and in the later cantata text.

G major

11.
 G major G7 C major C7

13.
 F major G7 C major

15.
 C major

17.
 L. H.

19.
 C major

21. Soprano. A Chorale Text Phrase 1.
Alto. Section A. Herr Gott, dich
Tenore. Herr Gott, dich
Basso. Herr Gott, dich lo -
 C major

The lower voices accompany the unadorned chorale phrase with an energetic, imitative counterpoint that contributes to the militantly triumphant instrumental texture. It is related to buzzing lines that depict the hovering angels of line 4 (see below).

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

23.

lo - ben Al - le Herr Gott, dich lo - ben Al - le lo - ben Al - le
- ben, Herr Gott, dich lo - ben Al - le

25.

wir
wir
wir
wir

C major

27.

B

und
und sol - len bil - lig
und sol - len bil - lig
und sol - len bil - lig

B

C major

In contrast to the first phrase, the lower voices accompany the second chorale line with energetic homophonic material.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

29.

sol - len bil - lig dan - dan - ken dir, und sol - len dan - ken dir, und sol - len

31.

dan - ken dir
- ken, und sol - len bil - lig dan - ken dir
bil - lig dan - ken dir
bil - lig dan - ken, dan - ken dir

Continuo alone. Right hand is editorial realization.

33.

C major (D7) G major

35.

G major G7 C major

37. C Chorale Text Phrase 3.

The lower voices accompany the third chorale phrase with the same imitative counterpoint as for the first phrase, but with a different order of entries.

E major      A minor      A minor

38.

G7      C major

41.

C major

43.

D7 G major

45.

47.

G major

49. Chorale Text Phrase 4.

D
 The lower voices accompany the fourth chorale phrase with a swirling counterpoint (similar to that in lines 1 & 3) that depicts the hovering angels referenced in the text. Now the alto and tenor move in tandem, while the bass follows in imitation. The final chorale note is extended while the counterpoint continues to swirl over a cadential progression. Compare the 16th-note swirls over a G pedal in the first movement of the St. John Passion ("Herr, unser Herrscher").

die um dich
 die um dich schweb'n
 die um dich schweb'n
 die um dich schweb'n

D

G major C major

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

51. NBA: um

schweb'n in dei - nem
in dei - nem
in dei - nem
in dei - nem

53. C major

Thron.
Thron, die um dich schweb'n
Thron, die um dich schweb'n
Thron, die um dich schweb'n

55.

in dei - nem Thron.
in dei - nem Thron.
in dei - nem Thron.

V I C major Dal Segno.

A brief alto recitative (whose text incorporates 3 lines of the hymn without changing ideas from stanzas 2 and 3), presents the angels' mission.

Secco
130/2. Recitativo.

(Based on Chorale Verses 2-3)

•Angels' mission: to encircle Christ and his children (130/2). "wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God."

"Hohe Weisheit: The reference to angels' wisdom suggests passages such as 2 Samuel 14:20: "wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God."

Chromatic saturation in the vocal part in 9 mm.

Alto is often the voice of the believing soul or church. See Petzoldt, "Bach Kommentar" 1:176, 541, 2:917.

The image of angels as warriors who defend mortals suggests biblical passages such as Daniel 19:6: "[The angel's]... face [was] like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the noise of a multitude."

Also Psalm 91:11: "[The Lord] will give his angels charge of you to guard you in all your ways."

1. Alto. F B-flat C D G

Ihr hel - ler Glanz und ho - he Weis - heit zeigt, wie

Text painting: The lofty radiance & wisdom of the heavenly realm of angels is contrasted with God's condescension to mortals by the use of ascending and descending motion, respectively.

F major For the significance of F major, see side note. B-flat major (A7)

3. C# E A

Gott sich zu uns Menschen neigt, der solche Helden, solche Waffen (für) vor uns ge -

Allusion to biblical passages such as Psalm 40:1: "I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me (Luther 1545: er neigt sich zu mir) and heard my cry."

F major D minor (often associated with "poor, weak sinner" (see side note).)

5. F# B G#

schaffen. Sie ru - hen ihm zu Eh - ren nicht; ihr ganzer Fleiss ist nur da - hin ge -

F major D7 G major E7

8. Chorale lines verbatim but no reference to the tune. D#

richt, dass sie, Herr Chri - ste, um dich sein und um dein ar - mes

Text painting: The angels' heavenly service to Christ in heaven and their service to mortals on earth is depicted with parallel writing in high and low range, respectively.

A minor B7 E minor D# dim.7

10.

Haufe - len. Wie no - thig ist doch die - se Wacht bei Satans Grimm und Macht!

E minor E minor F# dim.7 D7 G major

With the bass aria, the conflict begins. The singer describes Satan, the ancient dragon, full of fury and evil intent. Meanwhile the orchestra, with trumpets and timpani in the foreground playing military fanfares, colorfully depict the ferocious battle. Such trumpet & timpani accompaniment for an aria is rare.

130/3. Aria. (Based on Chorale Verses 4–6)
 ●Dragon tirelessly seeks to devour God's children (130/3).

Form (Rhyme: AABCCB)
 Ritornello (mm. 1-11) CM
 A. Lines 1-3 (11-30) CM-GM
 Rit. (30-33) GM
 B. Lines 4-6 (33-44) GM-Am
 Rit. (45-55) CM
 A'. (55-74) CM
 Rit. (74-80) CM

1. (Tempo giusto ♩ = 72.)

Ritornello

Timpani play stile concitato (see side note).

Modified da capo form.
 The militant movement begins with a single timpani stroke and continuo.

3.

C major

Timpani

Using C major for a depiction of the ancient dragan reflects Satan's jealousy of Christ (see notes below).

5.

7.

Trp I is particularly virtuosic.

Timpani

C major

9.

This type of aria is called a "Devisenarie" (a term coined by Hugo Riemann) or "motto aria." After the ritornello, the singer presents the first phrase of the aria as a kind of motto. This is followed by a short instrumental bridge before the aria proper begins. The motto sets the tone (and the literary perspective) for the movement.

A Section.

Eric Chafe argues that that such an ascent-descent arpeggio theme often has an eschatological association. See Eric Chafe, Analyzing Bach Cantatas (New York: Oxford University Press, 2000), pp. 68, 253n.

11. Basso. Motto

Der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid,
 The ancient dragon burns with jealousy.

Timpani

C major

The restless jealousy of Satan is encapsulated in the rolling 12/8 meter and the virtuosic trumpet lines (especially Trp I). This movement was later re-scored (presumably by Bach) in a pasticcio now numbered BWV 130.2. More in side note.

The teaching that Lucifer was jealous of Christ, leading to his rebellion and downfall is based on passages such as Isaiah 14:12–15. See side note.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

13.

der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es

C7

15.

Leid, und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, der al - te Dra - che brennt vor

F major D7 G major G7

17.

Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, dass er - das klei - ne

C major A7 D minor G7

Text painting: Convoluted melisma with breaks for "das Häuflein trennet" ("divide the little band [of God's children]").

19.

Häuflein tren -

C major B minor A minor

Chromatic harmonic progression for "The ancient dragon burns with envy and devises ever to bring new harm."

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

22.

- net, der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es

Stile concitato

D7 D# dim.7

24.

Leid, und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, dass er das klei - ne

C# dim.7 D minor G7

Text painting: Convoluted melisma with breaks for "das Häuflein trennet" (divide the little band [of God's children]).

26.

Häuf - lein tren -

C major

28.

- net, dass er - das klei - ne Häuf - lein tren -

D7 G major

High notes in the bass range are used to express the danger Satan poses to the "little flock."

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

30.

net.

Ritornello

G major

32.

B Section.

Er tilg - te gern, was Got - tes

G major G7

34.

ist, er tilg - te gern, was Got - tes ist, bald, bald

C7 F major

C major

High notes in the bass range are used to express the danger Satan poses to the "little flock."

37.

braucht er List, bald, bald

braucht er List, bald braucht er List, weil

Stile concitato

E7 A major A7 D(7) G major E major

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

39.

Text painting: Static note for "Ruhe" (rest)...

er nicht Rast noch Ru -

A minor F major

Detailed description: This system shows measures 39 and 40. The vocal line in the bass clef has a triplet of eighth notes in measure 39 and a long, sustained whole note in measure 40. The piano accompaniment consists of a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The key signature changes from A minor to F major between measures 39 and 40.

41.

- he kennet, nicht Rast noch Ru - he kennet, weil er nicht

Stile concitato E major A minor

Detailed description: This system shows measures 41 and 42. The vocal line features a triplet of eighth notes in measure 41 and a triplet of eighth notes in measure 42. The piano accompaniment is characterized by a fast, rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand, described as 'Stile concitato'. The key signature changes from E major to A minor between measures 41 and 42.

Text painting: Chromaticism for "knows neither rest nor repose."

43.

Rast - noch Ru - he ken - net.

Ritornello G# dim.7 A minor A minor C major

Detailed description: This system shows measures 43, 44, and 45. The vocal line has a triplet of eighth notes in measure 43 and a triplet of eighth notes in measure 44. The piano accompaniment features a chromatic descending line in the right hand, described as 'Ritornello'. The key signature changes from G# dim.7 to A minor between measures 43 and 44, and then to C major between measures 44 and 45.

46.

C major

Detailed description: This system shows measures 46, 47, and 48. The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The key signature is C major.

49.

Detailed description: This system shows measures 49, 50, and 51. The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

51.

C major

53.

C major

55. A' Section. Motto returns.

Der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid,

C major

Timpani

57.

der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es

C major

C7

59.

Leid, und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, der al - te Dra - che brennt vor

F major

D7

G major

G7

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

61.

Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, dass er das klei - ne Häuflein tren -

C major A7 D minor C7 F major

Text painting: Convoluted melisma with breaks for "das Häuflein trennet" (divide the little band [of God's children], with high notes to express the danger Satan poses to the "little flock.")

64.

A7 D minor

Convoluted vocal line for Satan's scheming.

66.

- net, der al - te Dra - che brennt vor Neid und dich - tet stets auf neu - es

Stile concitato is extended...

G7 G# dim.7

Text painting: Chromatic harmonies for "devises ever to bring new harm."

68.

Leid, und dich - tet stets auf neu - es Leid, dass er das klei - ne

F# dim.7 D7 G major C7

Text painting: Convoluted melisma with breaks for "das Häuflein trennet" (divide the little band [of God's children]).

70.

Häuflein tren -

F major

72.

- net, dass er das klei - ne Häuf - lein tren -

G7

C major

74.

not.

Ritornello

C major

76.

Timpani

79.

Stile concitato

C major

C major

An unusual accompanied recitative and tenor follows. The singers begin immediately and sing throughout in the manner of an intimate love duet, providing the utmost contrast to the preceding scene as they describe the loving care of the angel host.

130/4. Recitativo. (Based on Chorale Verses 7–9)
 •Angels guard us like they did Daniel & his friends (130/4).

Chromatic saturation in the vocal parts in 4 mm; in the soprano in 9 mm; in the tenor, in 6 mm.

Alfred Dürr writes, "The contrast between [the] aria and the duet-recitative with strings that follows, no. 4, is as great as could be imagined. The calm and grace of this accompagnato reflects the security felt by believers 'even now' owing to the protection of the angels." See "The Cantatas of J. S. Bach," translated by Richard Jones (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2005), p. 697.

(♩ = 66.)

1. Soprano. F# G A E D G#
 Wohl, wohl, wohl a_ber uns, dass Tag und Nacht —

Tenore. G D# E G# A B
 Wohl, wohl, wohl, wohl a_ber uns, dass
 Well, well, well, well, however, for us that

The 3-fold statement of "wohl" (well, i.e., fortunately) counterbalances the 3-fold closing statement of "noch itzt" (even now).

"Halo of strings" for angels' comforting presence.

Despite the chromaticism, frequent parallel 3rds and 6ths provide sweetness.

E minor E7

The text alludes to 2 biblical accounts in the life of Daniel: Daniel thrown into the lions' den by King Darius (Daniel 6) and Daniel's friends thrown into the fiery furnace earlier by King Nebuchadnezzar (Daniel 3). Both accounts mention the presence of an angel. See Daniel 3:25: "I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods." Also Daniel 6:21–22: "O king, live for ever! My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me." Bach's decision to set the text as a duet was probably prompted by these accounts of an attending angel. More in side note.

3. C A# die Schar der Engel wacht, des Satans Anschlag zu zer_stören. Ein

F D C A# C#
 Tag und Nacht die Schar der En_gel wacht, des Satans Anschlag zu zer_stören. Ein day and night the host of angels keeps watch Satan's plot/assault to destroy. A

A bass pedal tone, suggesting the stability of a life protected by angels, is interrupted by Satan's attack, leading to the cadence.

A minor A# dim.7 B minor F#7 B minor

6. E# C#
 Da_ni-el, so un-ter Lö-wen sitzt, er-fährt, wie ihn die

F#
 Da_ni-el, so un-ter Lö-wen sitzt, er-fährt, wie Daniel, who among lions sits, experiences how

Petzoldt: Daniel's experience of "clarification" is depicted by the harmonic progression of F# minor to A major (see Bach Kommentar 3:291)

G# dim.7 E# dim.7 F# minor A major

8. D#

Hand des En - gels schützt. Wenn dort die Gluth in Babels Ofen keinen Schaden ihn die Hand des En - gels schützt. Wenn dort die Gluth in Babels Ofen keinen Scha - den him the hand of angels protects. When there the blaze in Babylon's furnace no harm

"Gluth" is colored with a diminished 7th chord.

D major                      D# dim.7...

11.

thut, so las - sen Gläu - bi - ge ein Dank - lied hö - ren, so stellt sich in Ge - thut, so las - sen Gläu - bi - ge ein Dank - lied hö - ren, so stellt sich in Ge - does, then believers let a song of thanks be heard, then appears in peril

Text painting: A consonant harmonic progression depicts the protection and thanksgiving of Daniel's three friends.

E minor                      G major                      G# dim.7                      E7                      A minor

Martin Petzold argues that the song of thanksgiving mentioned is forestalled here with a deceptive cadence, but ultimately presented in the closing chorale. See "Bach Kommentar" 3:291.

13.                      NBA: itzt. The 3-fold statement of "noch itzt" (even now) counterbalances the opening 3-fold statement of "wohl" (fortunately).

fahr noch jetzt der Engel Hil - fe dar.
 fahr noch jetzt, noch jetzt der Engel Hil - fe dar.
 even now, even now the angels' help.

F# dim.7                      G(7)                      C major                      (D7)                      G major                      G major

An even lighter movement follows. Here the tenor is accompanied by a transverse flute in a courtly dance (a gavotte) that evokes visions of sparkling chandeliers, gleaming woodwork, high-bred manners, and elegant attire. The chamber-like quality is emphasized with a tacet marking in the organ part. The text is an invocation to the Lord of the cherubim—angels who will someday bear believers to the heavenly realms as they once did the prophet Elijah. See side note for biblical account.

Aria. (Based on Chorale Verse, 10) • Prayer: May angels protect us; take us up like Elijah (130/5).
(Allegro moderato) ♩ = 120.

Note: The transverse flute (used nowhere else in the cantata, including the final chorale) and the gavotte rhythm would have made this movement seem more modern to Bach's listeners than the rest of the cantata. The lighter style suits the description of a blessed death.

Flauto traverso 1.

Ritornello's beginning derived from voice's motto.

Figura corta (see side note).

Constant ascent figures in the flute and later in the voice represent the motion of the angels, as referenced in the text.

G major The organ part is marked tacet; it was perhaps played on a harpsichord. See Johann Sebastian Bach. The Sacred Vocal Music Complete Edition (Stuttgart: Carus Verlag, 2017), vol. 12, p. 66 (Uwe Wolf, translated by David Kosviner).

Flute parts of considerable technical challenge are prevalent in cantatas written from July to November 1724. Striking examples (in chronological order) include BWV 113/5, 99/3, 8/4, 130/5, and 26/2.

4.

Continuo plays beginning of motto.

Form (Rhyme: ABBACC)
 Ritornello (mm. 1-16) GM
 A. Lines 1-4 (17-50) GM-DM
 Rit. (51-54) DM
 B. Lines 5-6 (55-67) DM-Em
 Rit. (68-71) Em
 Lines 5-6 (72-88) Em-Bm
 Rit. (89-91) GM
 A'. (92-126) GM
 Rit. (1-16) GM

G major

Martin Petzoldt suggests that Bach's setting (especially in the B section) depicts the "rolling capabilities" of the heavenly chariots as described in various biblical passages (see "Bach Kommentar" 3:291).

8.

The flickering flute part may symbolize the flames of Elijah's chariot as referenced in the second part of the aria—flames that are not threatening like those of the fiery furnace experienced by Daniel's three friends.

11.

G major

14.

G major

16. Tenore.

Lass, o Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen,

The motto (Devise) has a descending contour: it addresses God in what becomes a prayer to send the cherubim (down to earth) to aid believers.

G major

G major

This type of aria is called a "Devisenarie" (a term coined by Hugo Riemann) or "motto aria." After the ritornello, the singer presents the first phrase of the aria as a kind of motto. This is followed by a short instrumental bridge before the aria proper begins. The motto sets the tone (and the literary perspective) for the movement.

20.

lass, o — Fürst der Che - ru -

G major G major

24.

bi - nen, o Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, lass, o — Fürst der Che - ru -

G major

28.

bi - nen, die - ser Hel - den ho - he Schar -

Word painting: Long rolling melismas for "Schar" (host [of angels]).

G major

"Schar" (host [of angels]) and "immerdar" (evermore) are keywords that connect this movement theologically to the closing chorale. See Petzoldt 1:293.

32.

immerdar deine Gläu - bi - gen be - die - nen, im - mer -

G major A major D major D major D major

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

36.

dar, lass, o Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, die - ser

D major D major

This system contains measures 36 through 39. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major (one sharp). The lyrics are: "dar, lass, o Fürst der Cherubinen, dieser". The piano part includes a red "D major" label under the first and last measures of the system.

40.

Hel - den ho - he Schar

D major D major

This system contains measures 40 through 43. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major. The lyrics are: "Helden hohe Schar". The piano part includes a red "D major" label under the first and last measures of the system.

44.

immerdar deine Gläu - bi - gen be - die -

D major

This system contains measures 44 through 47. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major. The lyrics are: "immerdar deine Gläubigen be-". The piano part includes a red "D major" label under the last measure of the system.

48.

- - nen, dei - ne Gläu - bi - gen be - die - nen;

mf Ritornello

D major

This system contains measures 48 through 51. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major. The lyrics are: "- nen, deine Gläubigen be-dienen;". The piano part includes a red "Ritornello" label and a dynamic marking of "mf" (mezzo-forte) under the last measure of the system. A red "D major" label is also present at the bottom of the system.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

52.

B Section

dass sie auf E - li - as'

Elijah's heavenly ascent in a chariot of fire is described in 2 Kings 2:11-12 (see note above).

D major D major

56.

Wa - gen sie zu - dir gen Him - mel tra - gen, dass sie - auf E - li - as'

B7 E minor E minor E minor

60.

Word painting: Long, ascending melisma for "tragen" (carry), i.e., carried up to heaven like Elijah in his chariot.

Wa - gen sie zu dir - gen Him - mel tra - - - -

E minor (A7) B7 E minor

64.

- - - - - gen, sie zu dir gen Him - mel -

C major B7 E minor

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

67.

tra - gen,

Ritornello
m

E minor E minor

71.

dass sie_ auf E - li - as' Wa - gen sie zu dir gen Him - mel

E minor E minor B minor

75.

tra -

B minor B7 E minor

78.

- gen, dass sie auf E - li - as'

F#7 F#7 B minor E7 E minor C# dim.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

Sequentially ascending line for "carrying up to heaven."

81.

Wa - gen sie zu dir gen Him - mel tra -

(F#7) A# dim.7 B minor F#7 A(7) D major

Detailed description: This system contains measures 81, 82, and 83. The vocal line features a sequentially ascending line for the words "carrying up to heaven." The piano accompaniment consists of a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. Chord labels are provided below the piano part.

84.

F#7 B minor A# dim.7

Detailed description: This system contains measures 84 and 85. The vocal line continues with a melodic line. The piano accompaniment maintains the rhythmic pattern. Chord labels are provided below the piano part.

86.

gen, sie zu dir gen Himmel tra - gen.

Ritornello

A# dim.7 B minor B minor G major

Detailed description: This system contains measures 86, 87, and 88. The vocal line concludes the phrase "gen, sie zu dir gen Himmel tra - gen." A "Ritornello" section begins in measure 88, marked with a trill symbol. Chord labels are provided below the piano part.

90.

Lass, o Fürst der Che - ru -

G major

Detailed description: This system contains measures 90, 91, and 92. The vocal line begins with "Lass, o Fürst der Che - ru -". The piano accompaniment features a more active rhythmic pattern. A chord label is provided below the piano part.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

94.

bi - nen,

mf Ritornello

G major

This block contains the musical notation for measure 94. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics "bi - nen,". The piano part includes a red "Ritornello" marking and a dynamic marking of mf. The key signature is G major.

97.

lass, o - Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, o

G major

G major

This block contains the musical notation for measure 97. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics "lass, o - Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, o". The piano part includes a dynamic marking of p. The key signature is G major.

101.

Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, lass, o - Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, die - ser

G major

This block contains the musical notation for measure 101. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics "Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, lass, o - Fürst der Che - ru - bi - nen, die - ser". The key signature is G major.

105.

Hel - den ho - he Schar

G major

This block contains the musical notation for measure 105. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics "Hel - den ho - he Schar". The piano part includes a dynamic marking of f. The key signature is G major.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

108.

im - - - mer - dar,

G major G7

111.

im - - - mer - dar, lass, o...

C major E7 A minor D7

114.

Fürst der Che - ru - - bi - nen, die - ser Hel - - -

G major

117.

- - - - - den - ho - he - Schar immer -

G major (A7) D major

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

120.

dar dei - ne Gläu - bi - gen be - die -

D7 G major G major

123.

- nen, dei - ne Gläu - bi - gen be - die - nen.

G major G major G major

Da Capo.

The cantata ends with stanzas 11 and 12 of Paul Eber's hymn (but Bach apparently changed his mind about stanza 12; see side note). Although harmonized in relatively simple manner, the chorale is exalted with a resplendent accompaniment of high trumpets, timpani, oboes, strings, and continuo.

In the context of the reference earlier to Daniel's three friends in the fiery furnace (no. 4), these chorale stanzas represent their song of thanksgiving as recorded in the apocryphal additions to Daniel 3. See note for more. Musically and textually, the chorale setting is related to the opening movement, though the trumpets and timpani enter only on the second half of each chorale line—leading ceremonially to the cadences.

(Chorale verses 11–12) • Praising God with angels; prayer that they protect us (130/6).

Choral. (Mel: „Herr Gott, dich loben Alle wir“)

Soprano. 1.

1. Da - rum wir bil - - - lig lo - - ben dich und

Alto.

2. Und bit - - ten dich: - - wollst al - - le - zeit die -

Tenore.

1. Da - rum wir bil - - - lig lo - - ben dich und

Basso.

2. Und bit - - ten dich: - - wollst al - - le - zeit die -

+Ob I, Vln I
+Ob II, Vln II
+Vla

For an Oboe III part added by Bach, see Johann Sebastian Bach. The Sacred Vocal Music Complete Edition (Stuttgart: Carus Verlag, 2017), vol. 12, p. 66ff.

Trps & Timp

C major C major C major

Rising strings of 8th notes in the continuo, continued by trumpets, depict the prayerful praise and petition referenced in the text.

J.S. Bach - Church Cantatas BWV 130

5.

dan - ken dir, Gott, e - - wig - lich, wie auch der lie - ben sel - ben hei - ssen sein - - be - reit, zu - schüt - zen dei - ne
dan - ken dir, Gott, e - - wig - lich, wie auch der lie - ben sel - ben hei - ssen sein - - be - reit, zu schüt - zen dei - ne

Trps & Timp

E7 A minor C major G major G7 C major E7 A minor

The descending string of 8th notes in the continuo may suggest the angels' protection of the "little flock" referenced in the text's second stanza (but see note above about Bach's apparent decision to omit the second stanza).

11.

En - gel Schar dich prei - set heut' und im - mer - - dar.
klei - ne Herd', so hält - - dein gött - lich's Wort in - - Werth.
En - - gel Schar dich prei - set heut' und im - mer - - dar.
klei - ne Herd', so hält - - dein gött - lich's Wort in Werth.

NBA: preisen

Trps & Timp

C major C major C major